

In order for your video to be entered into the theoFILMS Film Festival, your video must follow these strict rules and guidelines. Any video that does not adhere to the rules and guidelines listed below will not be eligible to be screened at The Weekend 2012: MOVE

Rules:

- The video may not contain any nudity
- The video may not contain any profanity or foul language
- The video may not contain any cultural-specific jokes
- The video must not exceed ten minutes in length
- The video may not be uploaded to YouTube prior to, or after The Weekend (All of the videos will be uploaded to the Theophilus website after The Weekend)
- As much of your youth group as possible must be, in some way, involved in the making of the video (acting, filming, editing, costumes, etc.)
- Each church may only submit one video

Guidelines:

- The video should be filmed using an AVCHD camcorder if possible
- Please submit the video at the highest native resolution as possible
- The submitted video must be encoded in H.264
- The file size does not matter, so long as the video is no longer than ten minutes
- Time limit: TEN (10) minutes

The theme this year is: MOVE

When you are finished with your video, send an email to theofilms@theophilus.info to get details on where to upload the video. Submissions are due no later than 3/2/2012.